Student Feedback for Academic

Year 2024-2025: July- December, 2024

At SSLA, feedback from students is elicited through the Open House, Online Google form, and the Director's Open-Door policy.

1. The Open House with students is conducted after the first 3 weeks of classes. The Director meets with each batch of students to take feedback and resolve any concerns they may have with regard to the ongoing semester. This feedback is then shared with respective faculty in individual meetings as applicable. Generic feedback, both positive and negative, is also shared in faculty meetings.

Consolidated ATR for Academic Year 2024-25

ATR based on:

- Faculty feedback from July-Dec 2024 and Jan-May 2025
- Alumni feedback from July-Dec 2024 and Jan-May 2025
- Employers feedback from July-Dec 2024 and Jan-May 2025
- Parents suggestion emails received by the Director

Stakeholder feedback	Feedback received	Action taken
Alumni	Request for revision of Business Studies. Economics and Computer Studies	A committee has been set up along with students, alumni and concerned faculty is being set up
Employers	To incorporate more contemporary skills such as digital media with digital learning	A course on Digital Media is being introduced in Media Studies
Faculty	Faculty of humanities to be allowed to apply for Major research grants	This is a larger conversation to be taken up with the university
Faculty	Request to involve faculty in university level conversations	This has been suggested in the Director's meeting
Parents	Request for specialisation related support for internships	This is already a practice in our internship programme. The information has been shared with the parent and helped resolve the suggestion.
